

A Panel Discussion on Representing Survivors of Assault

February 25, 2016 • 4:00-6:00 p.m.

Affirmations • 290 W. Nine Mile Rd. • Ferndale • 48220

Our panel will include:

- Jessica Bertollini of #happyperioddetroit - Introduction and Discussion of the Movement for Feminine Hygiene Products in Shelters
- Heidi Sharp of Burgess Sharp & Golden, PLLC - Issues unique to representing survivors of assault in labor and employment issues
- William Knight of Lakeshore Legal Aid and Ashley Lowe of Wayne State University Law School - Issues unique to representing survivors of assault in family court, landlordtenant matters, and criminal matters
- Sara Dobbyn of Turning Point - Safety Planning: Considerations for all practitioners

Seating is limited, so save your seat by registering today at <http://e.michbar.org>.

Feminine hygiene products are among the most needed items in women's shelters, yet are the least frequently donated. We are therefore asking for a donation of feminine hygiene products in lieu of a registration fee (to be collected at the time of the event). Donations will benefit Turning Point, a shelter in Macomb County.
