7. Nominating Committee Report and Vote to Elect New Officers and Council

Enright reported that there were technical difficulties distributing nominating committee information to members to meet deadlines as per By-Laws and instead information sent to Council ahead of time and Enright presenting all information during the meeting.

Per the By-Laws, the Chair-Elect automatically succeeds to Chair. Helminski is nominated for Chair-Elect and Sadler for Secretary/Treasurer. A vote by email was held and passed that granted an extension beyond the two three-year terms allowed in the By-Laws for council members. The full slate of officers and council-members proposed by the nominating committee is in Attachment 1. This proposal increased the number on the council from ten members to thirteen.

Enright requested nominations from the floor. None were presented.

Henne made motion to approve the slate of candidates proposed by the nominating committee. Barbieri second. The Motion was unanimously approved.

8. Outgoing Chair's Report (Martorano)

Martorano expressed her gratitude to being elected to counsel and now being Chair and for the great work conducted by Council and the committees. Martorano passed the gavel to Enright.

9. Incoming Chair's Introduction

Enright presented plaques for Watson, McClure, Sadler, and Schroek for their work on Council. Enright expressed thank you to Martorano for her work as Chair. Enright expressed that this Section is about service to its members: publications and programs. Other sections remark about how much this section accomplishes. The Section's work is accomplished through committees. Only about half the members on committees are council members, and we need more committee help. For membership, the trend is declining. This may be function of demographics, but the Section needs to reassess needs for new members. Barbash-Riley has agreed to look into membership to additional lawyers and other ideas for Section recruitment.

10. Questions/Discussion

There was no additional questions or discussion.

Meeting adjourned 4:15pm.
