5. Meetings and Programs.

ICLE has changed some of its priorities in the short term because of Covid. ICLE will be taking a hiatus from filming on-demand seminars over the spring, and hopes to resume in July.

ICLE also has been in discussions with the Section's Programs Committee about a potential cancellation of the Business Law Institute, typically held in conjunction with the Section's Annual Meeting in early October, due to continuing uncertainty surrounding large in-person gatherings. No final determination has been made. Last year, the BLI was held virtually.
