3. Membership.

The Committee always welcomes new members, and the Co-Chairs seek to encourage involvement on the Committee when encountering practitioners in the field who are not involved. Since the last report, we have added one new member. We believe this new member, who is with the Michigan AG's office, will bring a new perspective to Committee discussions.

Committee Co-Chairs continue to provide updates to members periodically on newsworthy developments in the law related to exempt organizations.

4. Accomplishments Toward Committee/Directorship Objectives.

In addition to updating members on significant developments in the law, Committee Co-Chairs respond to practice questions raised by members from time to time.
