Mr. Haddad reported that the Section's fund balance is $191,000, up from $188,000 in August of 2024. The proposed budget projects a deficit of $25,000 which is down substantially from budget projected deficits of the last two years. Dues will increase in 2025 to $50, bringing an anticipated $46,000 in additional revenue. We have decreased printing costs with respect to the Journal. A discussion ensued regarding the budget request of the Privately Held Business Forum of $10,000. - b. Business Law Institute. Attendance numbers at the 2025 Business Law Institute decreased from 2024. We believe this may be because of the earlier date.
