a. Update on Three Initiatives.

(i) Stephen H. Schulman Outstanding Business Lawyer Award. Mr. Lark reported that James Bruno, Hugh Makens, Cy Moscow, and Martin Oetting have been chosen as the recipients of the Stephen H. Schulman Outstanding Business Lawyer Award for 2006 and that they will be honored at the Section's Annual Meeting in September. He stated that four recipients were chosen in the Award's first year, but that one recipient will be chosen annually thereafter. The State Bar will allow the Section to hang a plaque in recognition of the Award at the Bar's headquarters in Lansing. Mr. Lark reported that he has sent notification letters to the recipients. The Section hopes to receive much press regarding the Award, press releases will be prepared and announcements will be made in the Business Law Journal and other publications. Wayne State University and the Schulman family may also be notified regarding the Award.

(ii) Strategic Plan. Mr. Lark reported that the Section continues to work toward meeting the goals outlined in the Strategic Plan. He did not go through the goals one by one as that was done previously and time at the current meeting is limited.

(iii) Section Development. Mr. Lark reported that on January 26 “The Business of Being a Business Lawyer” was held at the Skyline Club. This event will be followed by outstate versions which Mark High, Ed Lukas, Tim Damschroder, Roger Mali, and Justin Peruski will be planning.

Mr. Lark reported that Ed Lukas has met with all of the Michigan law schools in an effort to improve participation in the Annual Scholarship Award. Uwe Dauss is this year’s winner of the Award and he was honored at the Section dinner on June 2. A discussion ensued regarding continuing the award as there were only 9 submissions in 2006. Changing the timing of the award and how to approach the law schools was discussed. Tim Damschroder and Ed Lukas will meet before the Annual Meeting to set up a time schedule with respect to the Award.

The Small Business Forum, which is chaired by Cynthia Umphrey, hosted a kickoff event at the Birmingham Community House on June 15 from 5:30 – 7:30 p.m. A survey was submitted at the event to determine the direction of the Forum and further surveys will be distributed at upcoming events. The networking component makes the Forum unique.

- b. Annual Meeting 2006. Mr. Lark reported that this year’s Annual Meeting will be a social event and will not contain an educational component. Terri Shoop and the Programs Directors will assist in planning the meeting and will email Section members with a date and time.
- c. Business Law Institute - 2007 and 2008. Dee Dee Fuller reported that the Business Law Institute will take place on June 1 and 2, 2007. The Section was able to negotiate a rate of $114 per night and Boyne has agreed to waive the two night minimum. Boyne will also offer discounted rates at the water park. The Dearborn Inn and Greenfield Village were discussed as options for the 2008 Business Law Institute. Different program and social event options were discussed. The Programs Directors asked Council for the authority to book the 2007 and 2008 dates. A motion was made to have the 2007 Business Law Institute on June 1 and 2, 2007 at Boyne Resorts, and the 2008 Business Law Institute at the Dearborn Inn. The motion was seconded and unanimously approved.
