

The Debtor/Creditor Rights Committee of the Business Law Section of the State Bar of Michigan presents:

Steven W. Rhodes, Retired Chief Judge,
US Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan

Steven W. Rhodes, Retired Chief Judge, US Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, will speak about his experience as the City of Detroit Public Schools Transition Manager, an office created to lead the City's public schools out of difficulty following the City of Detroit's 2013 bankruptcy.

Since his retirement in 2015, following 30 years of distinguished service to the federal judiciary and his role presiding over the City of Detroit's bankruptcy, Judge Rhodes went on to undertake the Transition Manager position and has now joined the team at JAMS, the largest private alternative dispute resolution provider in the world, as an alternative dispute resolution neutral.
