Monica C. Lareau

Monica C. Lareau is system leader of Trinity's privacy program, which protects the privacy, security, and integrity of patient information. She has more than thirty years of experience in large health systems with expertise and leadership in privacy, compliance, clinical quality, and process excellence. Ms. Lareau has a particular focus on supporting patient engagement via innovative technology and ensuring privacy by leveraging the power and efficiency of advanced analytics. She holds an MS in health informatics and national certifications in health information management and privacy compliance.