Non-Government Disclosure Form (Contractor, Academic, UARC, etc.) Instructions

All MORS events are conducted pursuant to the provisions of the National Industrial Security Program Operating Manual (NISPOM) and are supervised by the OCNO N81. Disclosure Forms are required for ALL papers and presentations, government and non-government, classified and unclassified.

Submission Instructions

1. Check the Event Website for the form deadline at www.mors.org.
2. If using the MORS Presenter Center, all forms must be uploaded in the Presenter Center.
3. For other events, e-mail the completed form to morsoffice@mors.org.
4. If the presentation classification and/or Disclosure Statement selected on this form is different than those entered in the MORS Presenter Center, correct the Presenter Center entries to ensure proper labeling of the presentation.

Additional Instructions

1. Submission of this form does NOT guarantee an opportunity to present or publish at a MORS event or in a MORS publication. Such invitations will be issued separately.
2. Disclosure forms shall be completed and submitted by the Principal Author who fills in and signs Part I.
3. US and Non-US non-Government presenters should use this form.
4. The Contractor Security Officer completes Part II.
5. Parts I, II and III should be completed if the presentation was done under a government contract or is based on Internal Research and Development.
6. For papers based on IR&D and other in-house work, the company security officer may certify the form in Part III.
7. The cognizant Releasing Officer or Study Sponsor fills in Part III.
8. Part I should only be completed if the presentation is your own work, was not done under a government contract or IR&D and is approved for public release; distribution unlimited.
9. Title 18 United States Code 1001 makes it a criminal offense, punishable by a maximum of five (5) years imprisonment, a fine, or both, to knowingly and willfully make a false statement or representation to any department or agency of the United States, as to any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States. This includes any statement made herein which is knowingly incorrect, incomplete or misleading.
