

LEGAL AND PRIVACY CONDITIONS

GENERAL SITE DISCLAIMER

The CPAtrack.com website is the exclusive property of the Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants, Inc. (MSCPA). In addition to the copyright restrictions, absent written authorization from the MSCPA, the commercial dissemination or use, or the use or dissemination, of information obtained from this website is unauthorized and strictly prohibited.

PRIVACY

All email correspondence from the MSCPA contains a link for the user to unsubscribe from future communications. Upon request, the MSCPA will provide you with information regarding whether the MSCPA holds any of your personal data. You may access, correct, or request deletion of your personal data by contacting the MSCPA at mscpa@mscpaonline.org. The MSCPA will respond to your request within a reasonable timeframe. If requested to remove data, the MSCPA will respond within a reasonable timeframe.

CPA DISCLAIMER

This website is provided by the MSCPA. The MSCPA accepts no responsibility for the opinions and information posted on this site by others. The MSCPA disclaims all warranties with regard to the information posted on this site, whether posted by the MSCPA or any third-party. In no event shall the MSCPA be liable for any special, indirect or consequential damages or any damages whatsoever resulting from loss of use, data or profits arising out of or in connection with the use or performance of any information posted on this site.

RESUME POSTING SERVICE WAIVER AND DISCLAIMER

The posting of resumes on the MSCPA's website is a free service made available to members of the general public. Neither the MSCPA nor any of its members makes any warranty, expressed or implied, or assumes any liability or responsibility for the website's resume posting service or the content of any postings.

By posting your resume, you are agreeing to waive, release and hold harmless the MSCPA from any and all claims arising from, or related in any way, to the website, the website resume posting service or your individual resume. The following sections provide some disclaimer information concerning the general operation of the website resume service. Nothing contained therein or elsewhere on this website, shall be deemed to limit, in any way, the waiver and release effectuated by the posting of a resume.

POSTING PERIODS

Upon posting, it is the intention of the MSCPA that resumes will remain posted for six months. Once the six-month period ends, the MSCPA sends an email notifying you that the resume has been removed from the site. The MSCPA assumes no responsibility concerning the maintenance or renewal of resume postings. It is the poster's responsibility to monitor the status of their resume.

Contact Kara Kieran at kkieran@mscpaonline.org to have your resume removed.

ACCESS

Your resume will be accessible to the 11,000+ members of the MSCPA who have access to the MSCPA's website www.mscpaonline.org with the use of a username and password. While the MSCPA intends to limit access to MSCPA members, it is possible that other parties may obtain access to the resume service.

SECURITY

The MSCPA does not provide any security or confidential protection for the information posted on the resume service. It is the responsibility of the poster to use caution in disclosing confidential or other information.

ACCURACY

The MSCPA will post the resume in the format in which it is provided. The format of your resume may be altered in the posting process. You should preview your resume and return to the form to make changes. While the MSCPA will make efforts to make corrections that are brought to its attention, it is the responsibility of the resume poster to monitor their individual posting for accuracy of both content and format.

CONTENT

The MSCPA reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, to remove any and all content of postings made to its website resume posting service. The service is for the posting of resumes only. Do not post non-resume information. Do not post any incomplete, false, or inaccurate information. As noted, the MSCPA reserves the absolute right to remove content from the resume posting service, including content which it deems to be incomplete, false or inaccurate.
