The New Golfer League starts April 26 at the Golf Depot in Gahanna. We are starting out with the first of 3 clinics conducted by Leigh Anderson, Golf Professional at the Depot. We are continuing to solicit current members to be Mentors throughout the league (through August 9) and for four subsequent weeks where we will go to other courses to help the ladies make the transition to our regular leagues for 2019. We need YOU!

LPGA Webinar

Thanks to our LPGA Teaching and Club Professionals (T & CP), all LPGA Women Who Play members have been invited to attend a free webinar to learn more about the harmful effects of the sun and what you can do to prevent sun damage and protect yourself. This webinar is sponsored by TropicSport, a mineral based eco-friendly sunscreen. The webinar is scheduled for May 7th, 2018 at 3:00 EST (12:00 PST) and you can register now!

LPGA Women's Network

Check out the LPGA Women's Network. It's free to join and accessible for all women golfers. The LPGA Women's Network was created by the LPGA to connect you with golf's top female thought-leaders and tastemakers, all with the mission of helping you better enjoy the game of golf. Becoming an LPGA Women's Network member unlocks the hidden Member Perks page which gives you exclusive access to discounts on travel, golf, and lifestyle products from brands who want to support you in your journey with the game.

EWGA Handicap App for Mobile Devices

If you use the EWGA (GN-21) Handicap system to post your scores, the mobile app has been fixed! It is recommended that you use the app on your tablets (I Pad and Android) instead of the browser. You may need to uninstall and reinstall the app with these recent changes. Please contact your Handicap Chair or jeanne_biggerstaff@ewga.com if you need assistance.

Member Records Changed

The LPGA Women Who Play IT Team have discovered a glitch for members who have identical names and try to register for Chapter Championships. The current remedy is to insert the hometown of the member into the name in the member record. I.e., Mary Smith will become Mary (Orlando) Smith. If you find that your name has changed in your profile, please do not change it back as we want you to be able to register for all the fun and competitive events! We appreciate your understanding as Golf Genius works to find a new remedy.
