About the EWGA

Founded in 1995, the Albany/Capital Region, NY Chapter of the EWGA is one of the largest EWGA chapters, with over 230 members learning, playing, and enjoying golf for business and fun. Our local all-volunteer leadership runs 17 golf leagues from beginner to advanced, as well as a full calendar of events, including happy hours, business networking opportunities, competitive AND non-competitive golf events, golf education clinics, and off-season fitness programs. A major objective of the local chapter is to provide an avenue to bring more women into the game of golf. (Visit ewgaCapitalRegion.com for more info.)

The EWGA is THE Golf Community for Women. Offering a wide range of affordable organized golf activities and educational programs, this award-winning association has been bringing women together through golf since 1991. The EWGA has connected more than 100,000 women who share a passion for cultivating relationships and enjoying the game. As the largest international women's amateur golf association, EWGA has chapters located in more than 120 cities throughout the United States as well as international locations including Bermuda, Canada, Italy, Ireland and South Africa, thus enabling EWGA members to become active participants in hundreds of communities.

The EWGA is dedicated to inclusiveness and diversity in its membership and seeks to provide timely, valued benefits and services to EWGA members to promote the growth of women's golf and enrich the lives of women through the game of golf. The EWGA also serves as an advocate for positive change on issues of importance to women golfers. For more information about the EWGA and its membership, visit www.ewga.com.
