

Tournament Report: Scramble Winners, Locals at Nationals

Morning chill didn't dampen the cheer of the Capital Hills Tuesday team: Cheryl Watts (left), Christine Vooris, Michele Endries and Natalia Bausback.

League and Open Scramble Challenge: And the Winners Are...

Three teams fought to a three-way tie at Saratoga Spa Golf Course in the Chapter's annual League Challenge, with net scores of 69 on the Championship Course. So the battle turned into a card match refereed by Event Captain Annette Kahler and course golf professionals, while players munched on their BBQ ribs and chicken. And the winners are...

GRAND CHAMPIONS--STADIUM THURSDAY, Rachel Swire, Natalie Cole, Maureen McHugh, Liz Gaudet

2nd Place--CAPITAL HILLS TUESDAY, Cheryl Watts, Natalia Bausback, Michele Endries, Christine Vooris

3rd Place--CAPITAL HILLS THURSDAY, Katie Vitello, Michele Walls, Elaine Ramundo, Julie Naglieri

On the Par 3 Course, a low gross score of 64 was posted by the GRAND CHAMPIONS--MILL ROAD WEDNESDAY, Terri-Ann Montayne, Jacquelyn Grenier, Marie Occhiogrosso, and Courtney Schingledecker. The Purple Putters also took tournament-wide best-dressed--no card match needed there!

EWGA Championship Series: Onward to Nationals!

Five--count 'em, five!--chapter members have made their way to Hot Springs Village, Arkansas--yup, Arkansas!--for stroke play competition in the 2017 EWGA Championship Finals on October 6-7. Our national competitors advanced from the Northeastern Semi-Finals outside Rochester in August on the basis of gross and net placing in their flights. Our delegates (posing, from left, with their trophies from our Chapter Championship last June) and their Finals flights are Michele Walls and Pat Reynolds (First Flight), Terri Walsh and Denise DeCarlo (Third Flight), and Cathie Becker (Fourth Flight). Go get 'em, gals!
