For Immediate Release:

June 17, 2016

Contacts: Tumi Oluyole

National Association of Black Accountant Omaha Metro Chapter

Phone: 402-390-2480

NABA Omaha Metro a local chapter of the National Association of Black Accountants (NABA, Inc.) has been formed in Omaha and is holding meetings.

Professional members of the Chapter have completed their undergraduate studies, and many of its members possess advanced professional degrees and/or professional certification designations (e.g., CPA, CMA, CFA, CGMA, CIA, CFE, etc.)

NABA, Inc. was formed in 1969 and is a nonprofit membership association dedicated to bridging the opportunity gap for people of color in accounting, finance, consulting, information technology and other related business professions. It represents over 200,000 members of which over 5,000 are CPAs. NABA, Inc. is noted for its outreach programs and monetary scholarship awards to college, high school and middle school students in order to promote awareness in and prepare our youth to enter professional finance related careers.

Recently elected to the Omaha Metro Chapter were Tumi Oluyole as President, Tonya Arnold-Tornquist and Patricia Carter as Vice Presidents, Donald Neal Jr. as Treasurer and Symidahl Gates-Colbert as Secretary. The chapter meets bi-monthly at various sponsored Organizations to communicate emerging accounting profession issues and provide continuing professional education credits. The next meeting is set for Wednesday June 29, 2016 12pm - 2pm at RSM US LLP, 1299 Farnam St #530, Omaha, NE 68102. For more information, contact: Tumi Oluyole at nabaomahametro@gmail.com or visit www.nabaomahametro.org or call 402-390-2480.