NACCHO is proud to host the 2022 NACCHO 360 Conference as a hybrid (in-person and virtual) event from July 19-21, 2022 in Atlanta, Georgia. Every year, public health professionals gather at the NACCHO 360 Conference to share opportunities, challenges, best practices, and success stories; engage with federal, state, and local partners; and gain insights from public health experts. The 2022 NACCHO 360 Conference will help local health officials envision the future of local public health in their communities and provide them with the essential skills and strategies to achieve that vision effectively and efficiently. Attendees will learn from the experiences of colleagues and experts and adapt the knowledge into practice back at their organizations.

This year’s theme, Looking to the Future: Reshaping the Public Health System will explore how the local public health workforce and its stakeholders can move forward in the midst of an ongoing crisis while implementing traditional and innovative approaches to restructure a system built to protect the health of communities nationwide.

The NACCHO 360 hybrid environment will provide a successful event that seamlessly expands your company’s reach and engagement. As a sponsor for the conference, you will be able to promote your products and services to all meeting participants beyond the walls of a physical meeting with current and potential customers who are not confined by time or location!
