

Matthew Evans

Deputy Program Manager
Maritime Industrial Base Program

Mr. Matthew Evans serves as the Deputy Program Manager within the Navy's Maritime Industrial Base Program, an organization established in September 2024 to work on holistic data integration and relationships on the prime and the supplier base that support shipbuilding and ship repair for multiple PEOs, programs and platforms.

Mr. Evans has served as a civilian in the Department of Defense with work experience in acquisition, contracting, and program management and as a Naval Officer onboard U.S. Navy surface combatant.

Prior to his current assignment, Mr. Evans served as Director, Shipbuilding Industrial Base Task Force (SIB-TF), as Principal Assistant Program Manager (PAPM) for the Ship-to-Shore Connector program and as Acquisition Director for DDG 1000 program.

Mr. Evans served onboard USS Fitzgerald (DDG 62), USS Paul Hamilton (DDG 60), and USS Thach (FFG 43), and a shore assignment with Commander, U.S. Naval Forces, Europe-Africa.

Mr. Evans is a graduate of University of California, Berkeley and holds a MBA from University of Maryland, College Park. He is a member of the Acquisition Professional Community and holds DAWIA Level III certification in Program Management. Mr. Evans received the Navy Meritorious Civilian Service Award in 2013 and 2015, in addition to numerous other recognitions and performance awards throughout his career.