

NANNP Council Member

Duties and Responsibilities

- A. Participates in collaboration with elected council members in the general management of the affairs of NANNP.
- B. Performs duties incident to the position of Council member, which may include overseeing programs and chairing projects as assigned by the NANNP council or chair.
- C. Participate in quarterly conference calls, two face-to-face meetings, and other meetings and/or conference calls as needed,
- D. Serves as Council liaison to NANNP Committee(s) and task forces at the appointment of the council chair.
 - 1. Ensures that the committee's actions are consistent with NANNP's mission and strategic plan and acts as the committee's advocate to the NANNP Council.
 - 2. Communicates relevant Council decisions to the Committee or task force.
- E. Participates in the orientation of newly elected Council members to their duties
- F. Performs other duties as may be assigned by the NANNP Council.

Qualifications

- A. Must be a member in good standing in NANNP
- B. Must be an APRN
- C. Must present a documented history of leadership in NANN, NANNP, or other professional associations, as evidenced by active participation at the local, chapter or national level, as an officer or as a member of the Board of Directors, a council, a committee, task force, or organizational liaison.
- D. Must be currently involved in advanced neonatal nursing care (through clinical practice, education, research, management, or consulting).
- E. Must have the ability to meet the obligations and time commitments of this position, to attend regularly scheduled meetings, conference calls, and to regularly check and respond to electronic messages.
- F. Must have internet access and the ability to print materials received electronically.