<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>DEGREE OF INDURATION</th>
<th>SPECIFIC POPULATIONS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| ≥5 mm is classified as positive in: | HIV-positive persons
Recent contacts of TB cases
Persons with radiographic results consistent with old healed TB
Persons with suspected TB
Persons who are immunosuppressed |
| ≥10 mm is classified as positive in: | Recent arrivals from high-prevalence countries
Those with concomitant medical conditions
Injection drug users
Residents/employees of high-risk areas
Children <4 years of age
Students exposed to adults in high-risk categories |
| ≥15 mm is classified as positive in: | Anyone ≥4 with no known risk factor for TB |