

Professional Development Funds

$21,200 annually to fund continuing education and the professional development of state procurement staff.

For more information contact pdfunds@naspo.org.

NASPO Network

Online members-only platform that allows members to interact and share valuable information with one another.

community.naspo.org

Publications & Webinars

Research briefs, whitepapers and reference publications, as well as webinars on emerging issues and best practices are available to members on NASPO.org.

Committees and Work Groups

Members working together toward shared goals, such as conference planning, producing research-based work products or design initiatives that benefit the association.

Contact headquarters@naspo.org to express your interest.

NASPO Annual Conference

Official NASPO business is conducted against a backdrop of peer-to-peer networking, educational sessions and keynote presentations.

NASPO covers two procurement staff members from each state.

NASPO Exchange

State members and the vendor community come together for one-on-one appointments and educational sessions promoting best practices on how to do business with the states.

NASPO covers two procurement staff members from each state.

NASPO REACH Conference

In 2018, the REACH Conference will bring all regions together for a joint networking event aimed at the practitioners in each state.

NASPO covers six procurement staff members from each state.

NASPO Academic Forum

Brings together state CPOs and higher education leaders to create a well-prepared work force of procurement professionals and elevate the profession's position and visibility.

NASPO covers one procurement staff member from each state.

NASPO Law Institute

State employees providing full-time legal services to the procurement team or Chief Procurement Officer are invited to attend.

NASPO covers two procurement staff members from each state.

Leadership Academy

A leadership development opportunity for state directors, Chief Procurement Officers and emerging leaders in state procurement.

NASPO covers one procurement staff member from each state.

NASPO ValuePoint

Wholly owned subsidiary of NASPO, offering more than 50 national cooperative purchasing contracts covering a wide range of goods and services.

www.naspovaluepoint.org

Procurement U

An educational platform for individuals who work in state government procurement providing in-person and online learning, publications, toolkits, resources, certification exam prep and more.

procurementu@naspo.org

Green Purchasing Technical Assistance Funds

Funding for professional services to assist in establishing, implementing and enhancing sustainable purchasing in your state.

Applications should be submitted to kminor@naspo.org

IBISWorld

Market research and intelligence tool providing complete market analysis and benchmarking for use in the bidding, negotiations and award process.

Contact kminor@naspo.org for more information.

GovWin IQ

A searchable database of planned federal, state and local government solicitations, as well as historical contracts and their associated documents.

Contact kminor@naspo.org for more information.