Dear Friend:

I've come across some information that may be helpful to you.

The Criminal and Juvenile Justice Systems

In Pennsylvania, there is a notification service for crime victims – PA SAVIN. This service provides crime victims, their families and their circles of support with free, confidential notification regarding an offender's release, transfer or escape. The PA SAVIN service includes offenders under the supervision of county jails, state prisons and the state Board of Probation and Parole.
