Please note that about 90% of MELA’s dues support its lobbying efforts (on a long-term basis – it is less in the current budget).

- * Reduced Dues: If you are experiencing financial hardship and would like to be considered for reduced membership rates (or if you are retired from practice), please contact the MELA Treasurer.

Members of Affinity Bar Associations (as defined by the Boston Bar Association – see list below) are entitled to a 50% discount for the appropriate membership type, e.g., $125 for lawyers in practice 3 years or more; $72.50 for lawyers in practice fewer than 3 years; $47.50 for most others.

- Asian American Lawyers Association of Massachusetts
- Hispanic National Bar Association, Region I
- Massachusetts Association of Hispanic Attorneys
- Massachusetts Black Lawyers Association
- Massachusetts Black Women Attorneys
- Massachusetts LGBTQ Bar Association
- South Asian Bar Association of Greater Boston

-  Law Students: Law student members do not have access to MELA listserv or microsite, but they are entitled to attend all programs for free (for which they will receive periodic notices of programs) and can request a mentor. For more information, contact Membership Committee Co-Chairs Bryn Sfetsios at bsfetsios@pontikeslawllc.com or Jennifer Rubin at jrubin@deckerrubin.com.

-  Voluntary Contribution: Voluntary contributions are so appreciated. Any voluntary contributions will help MELA continue funding these efforts. Unless otherwise indicated, any voluntary contributions will be treated as donations to be used towards lobbying.

- * Sponsoring a New Member: If you are sponsoring a specific new member, please provide the individual's name and email address and MELA will send the individual notice of sponsorship and an application to complete. Otherwise, MELA will use the money to sponsor a new member of its choosing.
