ORGANIZATIONAL MEMBER SHIPS

Join us.
We're Committed to Leadership Excellence in Public Service

NFBPA offers cities, counties, other levels of government, not-for-profit non-governmental agencies and universities unparalleled resources and support to successfully deliver services to their employees and communities.

As an organization with over 2,500 members in all the professional disciplines needed to manage an organization we are well positioned to deliver research services, identify and tailor best practices for your organization, provide executive coaching and training programs, and serve as a conduit to interdisciplinary communication leading to innovative ideas and solutions.

Unique about NFBPA is our thirty plus years as an organization dedicated to the advancement of ethnically diverse leadership in public service.

Our membership includes public service professionals, students, university faculty and strategic private sector partners.

Services included in an Organizational Associate Membership:

- Entitlement to multiple individual memberships
