

PARTNER WITH NFBPA

A brief background on over three decades of influence.

The National Forum for Black Public Administrators (NFBPA) is the most progressive organization dedicated to the advancement of black public leadership in local and state governments. An independent, nonpartisan, 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization founded in 1983, NFBPA has established a national reputation for designing and implementing quality leadership development initiatives of unparalleled success. Its approximate 2,500 members can be found managing public programs and agencies in more than 350 jurisdictions nationwide. Thirty-eight chapters support the growth of the organization at the local level.

NFBPA MISSION

From its inception, the mission of the NFBPA has been three-fold:

- 1 To increase the number of African Americans appointed to executive positions in municipal, county and state governments.
- 2 To enhance the managerial capacity of African American administrators in public service agencies.
- 3 To groom younger, emerging Black administrators for the challenges of public service executive roles and careers in the years ahead.

THE STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP

Corporate Partners Receive:

- ▶ Visibility among an impressive membership of strategically positioned government decision makers.
- ▶ Get to know Black senior public officials from more than 350 different jurisdictions in 36 states.
- ▶ Access a current membership of more than 2,500 public officials.
- ▶ Access a nationwide professional labor force for senior management and executive recruitment.
- ▶ Take advantage of unique opportunities to showcase products and services used by local governments.
- ▶ Receive national and regional exposure at quarterly and annual meetings.
- ▶ Interact with other corporate members and explore strategic private-public opportunities.

NFBPA Receives:

1. Enhanced public-private cooperation to develop solutions to the challenges many communities face.
2. Opportunities for learning and sharing of "best practices" focused on strengthening public management effectiveness.
3. Access to timely information about the latest innovations in products and services from the corporate community.
4. Development of resources to carry out the NFBPA mission.

For more information contact:
The National Office of NFBPA
200 Massachusetts Ave., NW, Suite #700 | Washington, DC 20001
202-408-9300 ext. 101 | 844-236-6154 (Fax)
www.nfbpa.org

CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS

Partner with us. We're Insightful Decision Makers and Accomplished Next Generation Leaders

PROFESSIONAL DISCIPLINES

A few of the professional disciplines NFBPA members are in:

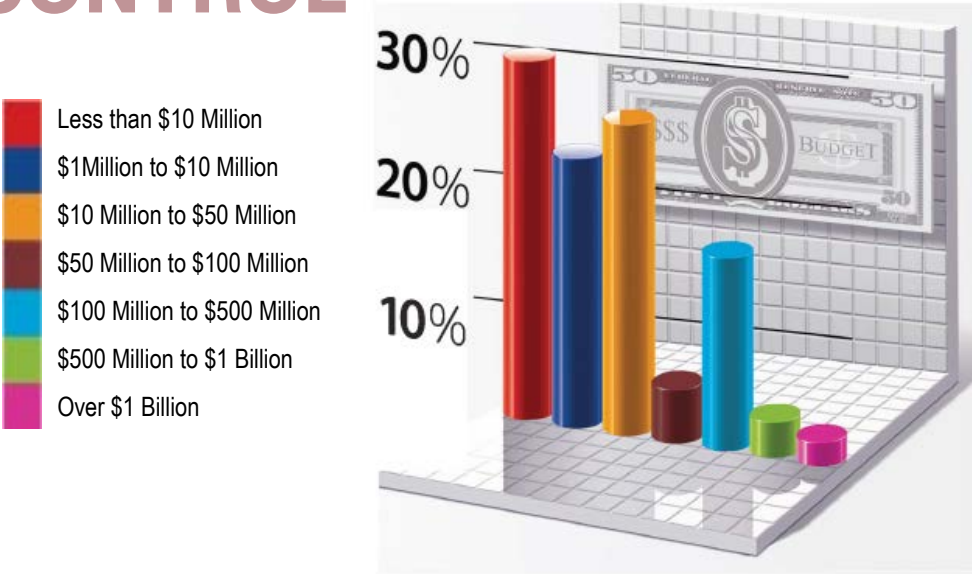

- Executive Leadership & General Administration
- Finance & Budget
- Economic Development
- Public Safety
- Education, Health & Human Services
- Public Works & Utilities
- Planning, Land Use & Community Development/Housing
- Information Technology

VALUED QUALITIES

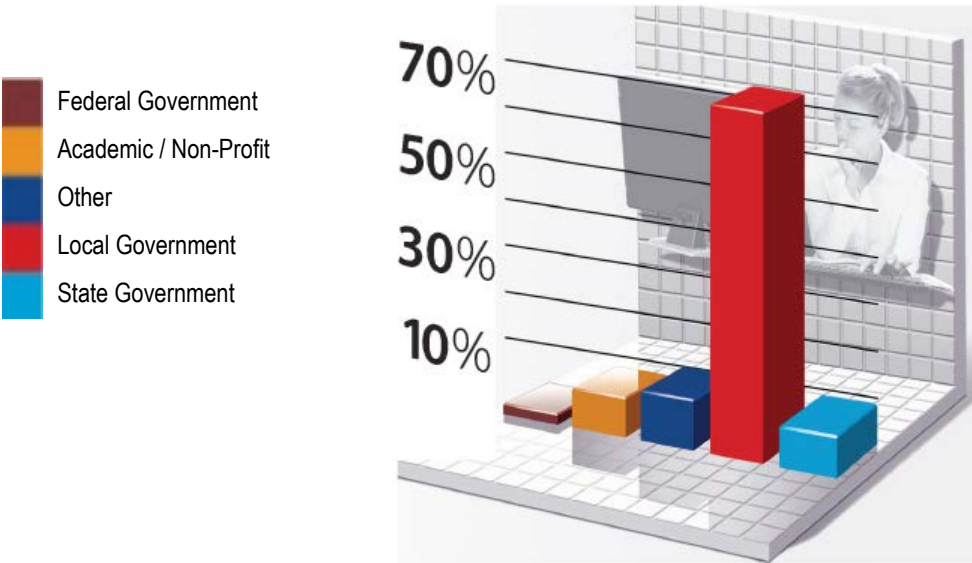

As a professional membership organization NFBPA is:

1. Serving as a magnet organization linking public, private and academic institutions in support of innovation and professional development among African Americans choosing public service careers;
2. Identifying and grooming younger, emerging African American administrators and providing relevant exposure to the challenges and rewards of public service careers;
3. Conducting research on selected social and economic issues endemic to African Americans and other historically underutilized groups;
4. Sponsoring and conducting national and regional forums for the discussion of timely issues and topical concerns that directly impact public management and the needs and concerns of the African American community;
5. Developing and maintaining a national information bank on the nation's growing African American non-elective public administrative leadership; and
6. Promoting, strengthening and expanding the roles of African Americans in all aspects of public administration.

MEMBER DECISION MAKERS' BUDGET CONTROL

MEMBER DECISION MAKERS' EMPLOYMENT

A NATIONAL ORGANIZATION

Enrolled with regional and state members:

