

Who We Are

Nicsa is a non-profit trade association connecting all sides of the global asset management industry to develop, share and advance leading practices. Nicsa offers enterprise-level membership benefits to a diverse set of participants in the industry– including product, distribution, technology, operations, compliance, and accounting professionals.

For over fifty years, the Association has offered a collective, timely view on evolving themes shaping the financial industry. At Nicsa, deep expertise and unique perspectives come together in an open and collaborative environment to tackle the strategic implementation of the industry’s most vital issues.

Our Mission

Our goal is to help asset management firms and financial service providers meet the changing needs of their clients and our industry by aligning and educating industry participants through:

“As a member of Nicsa, we have benefited from access to the industry’s largest global asset managers and service providers. Nicsa has afforded our employees access to its networking opportunities and interactive forums. Nicsa encourages collaboration and, through their committee volunteer network, our employees have been able to further develop professional leadership skills and make a meaningful impact on the industry.”

David Whitaker, President
FORESIDE

- Formal education programs that provide collaborative insights from diverse perspectives
- Interactive forums that allow members to exchange ideas and business solutions
- Networking opportunities that connect members from all segments of the financial industry

We seek to provide industry executives the tools to gain industry knowledge and make informed decisions about strategic business development and best practice implementation. In addition, Nicsa provides the opportunity for individuals to develop professional leadership skills and make a meaningful impact on the industry we serve via committee volunteer work.

What We Offer

ENTERPRISE-LEVEL VALUE

Benefits are offered to all employees of member firms – executive level, mid-level management, and those that are new to the industry. Nicsa’s membership value is extended to all parts of your organization .

“It is not often that you feel compelled to make a statement on an organization, but it is important to recognize excellence when you experience it. Nicsa is not just another industry group. They are relevant in every important category from specific best practices to industry leading trends. The group continues to drive improvements in industry content, which can be leveraged as a primary or supplemental source of training for your organization.

Nicsa has an effective lineup of committees that are chaired by industry leaders. Nicsa is also bold enough to take a leading position on the critically important subject of diversity, by launching The Diversity Project North America with a set of founding members and a global reach.”

BROAD INDUSTRY PARTICIPATION

Nicsa has continued to evolve into a dynamic cross section of all aspects of the global asset management industry, with many of the largest and leading fund companies having a seat at the table.

Nicsa offers enhanced collaboration across a wide range of industry perspectives. The Association enjoys a diverse membership, including asset management firms, broker dealers, and an extensive group of firms that include law, technology and service firms that support the industry.

IMPACTFUL MEMBER CONTRIBUTION

We rely upon strong member engagement, reflecting valuable insight and experience, to identify key themes and develop content for the programs that serve as education tools for Nicsa members.

Our thought leadership programs are driven largely by members for members.

Essential to our mission is active participation in, and contribution to, our many committees. To ensure that all segments of the global asset management industry are represented, Nicsa supports a variety of topic and event committees that meet regularly to discuss emerging issues and exchange ideas.

Smaller committee sizes (approximately 25 members) allow our volunteers to have impactful participation, make meaningful contributions, and have their voices be heard.

ACCESS TO LEADING INDUSTRY INTELLIGENCE

Nicsa provides access to developing industry practices via formal educational programs, nation-wide conferences, and informal networking opportunities. Employees of all stages of their careers can join our unique educational programs and receive valuable, practically-focused training on the essentials of the industry as well as deeper dives into leading industry practices.

CONFERENCE AND WORKSHOP PROGRAMS

The General Membership Meeting (GMM) and Strategic Leadership Forum (SLF) each explore current industry trends via keynotes, panel discussions, and roundtables with subject matter experts across all areas of the global asset management industry. Nicsa's SLF focuses on identifying central themes affecting the industry, while the GMM centers on business implications and strategic implementation of such developments.

Nicsa also offers regional meetings and workshops throughout the year that encourage peer dialogue and deeper dives into select topics.
