

Stacy Gregg, CPPO, CPPB

Procurement Manager, State of South Carolina, Division of Procurement Services, Columbia, SC

Stacy Gregg began working in the field of public procurement in June of 1996. Currently, she serves the citizens of South Carolina as Procurement Manager for the State Fiscal Accountability Office (SFAA – State Procurement Office, Goods & Services). Stacy is an online instructor for NIGP and is an active member of The Institute, as well as their local chapter, SC Association of Governmental Purchasing Officials, and NASPO.

Stacy has an Associate's Degree in Public Service (Paralegal) from Midlands Technical College in Columbia, SC and B.A. Degree in Interdisciplinary Studies (Concentrating in English & Management) from the University of South Carolina. She also holds CPPB and CPPO designations from the UPPCC.