

Linda D. McGill

CPPB

Linda McGill is the Deputy Director of the Office of Procurement for the Maryland Aviation Administration (MAA). MAA owns and operates BWI Thurgood Marshall (BWI) and Martin State (MTN) Airports. As Deputy Director, Ms. McGill is second in charge of the Office of Procurement. Some of those duties include attending the Board of Public Works Meetings, attending Maryland Department of Transportation Meetings, writing procurement policies and guidelines, and overseeing a staff of 21 employees.

Ms. McGill is an active member of NIGP's local chapter, Maryland Public Purchasing Association (MPPA), and currently serves as MPPA's Vice President 2014. Additionally, Ms. McGill served as Director on the Board of Directors, 2009-2011, volunteered at the 2008 NIGP Region II conference and served as the Social Host.

As an active member of NIGP, Ms. McGill served as 2011 Social Chair for the NIGP National Forum. Ms. McGill received certificates of Appreciation from Mr. Rick Grimm, and Ms. Carrie Rawn for her assistance at the Conference. She is currently a member in good standing, attends chapter meetings and classes. Ms. McGill obtained her CPPB in January 2006.
