

Charlie Rosol

CPPO, CPPB

Charlie Rosol currently is a Buyer with Cleveland Metroparks and previously held various positions with the Ohio Auditor of State and Ohio Attorney General.

Charlie received his Bachelor of Science, Business Administration degree from Franklin University, Columbus, Ohio and is a Certified Professional Public Buyer (CPPB) and Certified Public Procurement Officer (CPPO) through the Universal Public Procurement Certification Council (UPPCC).

As a Buyer with Cleveland Metroparks, Charlie facilitates the development of solicitations and evaluation, and contract administration for various services and contracts with Cleveland Metroparks; Zoo, Rangers, Golf Courses and recreation areas throughout the Park District.

In his career, Charlie managed various functions such as fleet, fixed assets, print/copy services, operations, and staff performance. He has also spearheaded multiple technology enhancements to streamline various processes to increase staff efficiency and productivity.