

AMY FLACK, CPPO, CPPB

Amy Flack is the Purchasing Manager for the NonCapital Program at Tampa International Airport with over ten years 13 years of public procurement experience. She oversees staff responsible for providing procurement support for 20+ departments including Maintenance, Information Technology, Marketing, Operations, and Concessions. Ms. Flack is also the Training Administrator for the Procurement Department, responsible for supplier training and Authority-wide staff procurement training. She also services as the Procurement Department lead with regards to Enterprise Resource Planning system upgrades, patches and issue resolution. She is an active member of NIGP, her local Chapter of NIGP, APG, and FAPPO. Amy currently serves on NIGP's Member Council and is the Public Relations Director for the Airport Purchasing Group. At a National NIGP level, she has been a Forum presenter, network facilitator, and member of the Forum and Expo Committee. She was named 2015 Buyer of the Year, 2017 Manager of the Year for her Chapter, and NIGP's 2017 Inaugural Young Professional Award. She has an Associate's degree in Paralegal Studies and will obtain her Bachelor's Degree from the University of Central Florida next year in Legal Studies.