

BILL DAVISON, CPPO

Bill is the Director of Purchasing for Stearns County Minnesota. He is a certified NIGP instructor who has developed curriculum and taught a variety of courses, including Contract Management, Risk Management in Public Contracting, Contracting for Services in the Public Sector, Fundamentals of Leadership, Requests for Proposals, Introduction to Public Procurement, and Welcome to Public Procurement. In addition, he has authored, co-authored, and edited several procurement texts, including the 2004 NIGP Contract Administration, the 1999 Intermediate Public Procurement Text, and the 2000 Contract Management text, in addition to numerous journal articles on procurement topics. Bill was the 2000 National Manager of the Year and is a UPPCC Certified Public Procurement Officer and has a Masters in Acquisition and Contract Administration.