

DUFF ERHOLTZ

Duff Erholtz is completing his 12th year in Membership Services for Sourcewell—formerly the National Joint Powers Alliance/NJPA. His primary responsibility is communicating with and supporting the procurement needs of the over 100,000 Sourcewell Members throughout the country. His contacts and work with procurement teams across the country helps him keep his finger on the pulse of many of their ongoing challenges. Duff plays a prominent role in supporting both customers and vendors, as well as guiding the customer service initiatives of the Sourcewell Contract Managers. In addition, Duff serves as the Educational Outreach Chair for the National Cooperative Procurement Partners to produce free and informative educational materials for procurement leaders on the topic of cooperative procurement.
