

LOURDES COSS, MPA, CPPO

Lourdes Coss, MPA, CPPO, is the author of “Procurement Methods: Effective Techniques” and a certified John Maxwell Team Coach, Speaker, Teacher, and Trainer. She is an accomplished procurement professional with approximately 30 years of experience. Lourdes held executive level positions in major public organizations, such as the City of Chicago, University of Illinois at Chicago, Public Building Commission of Chicago, Cook County, and City of Houston; and is now working with Canon Solutions America as a subject matter expert for government. She continues to add value to public entities through consulting and training. Lourdes led transformative changes in various entities leading to savings more than $100 million, higher personnel credentials; and transition to strategic/value-add operations. She authored and implemented the procurement code for the City of Houston and participated in the development of and implemented the procurement code for Cook County. Lourdes has been the recipient of many awards and accolades, including the 2016 Spirit of NIGP Award and the 2018 NIGP Integrity Award. Lourdes also held positions on various Boards, including NIGP. In addition to graduating magna cum laude from the University of Puerto Rico and receiving her master’s in public administration from Florida State University, Lourdes is a UPPCC Certified Public Purchasing Officer.