

MICHAEL BEVIS, CPPO, CPSM, C.P.M., DBIA, CJE

---

Michael Bevis is an internationally recognized thought leader in the public procurement profession. He has over 30 years of legal and procurement experience and is currently Chief Procurement Officer for the City of Norfolk, Virginia, where he is charged with integrating business, technology, operations and budgeting goals to further the City's commitment to grow Norfolk's economy and adopt programs that build a solid foundation for partnering with the business community. Michael is passionate in his support of fellow professionals. He currently serves as the Chairman of the Governing Board of NIGP, the Institute for Public Procurement; represents the International Federation of Purchasing and Supply Management on the Global Standard Board and is the Vice Chair of the Center for JOC Excellence. Michael's professionalism has been recognized by NIGP (Distinguished Service Award, Pareto Award of Excellence, Manager of the Year, Outstanding Agency Accreditation and Innovation awards), IFPSM (the Lewis Spangler Award), and the National Purchasing Institute. Michael is a graduate of Georgetown University Law School and Lincoln Memorial University.