

MINA KAEDING, PH.D, CPPO, CPPB, FCCM

As a Senior Procurement Officer for HCPS (Hillsborough County Public Schools), Dr. Kaeding has over 25 years of procurement experience in both the private and public sectors, with her areas of responsibility including Communications & Electronics (Low Voltage), Custodial Operations, Safety, Security, Utilities, and various aspects of Facilities and Grounds maintenance. Dr. Kaeding is active in NIGP (National Institute of Government Purchasing) at both the National and local level. At the local level, she has held every position on the Board for the Tampa Bay Area Chapter (TBAC) and is currently the Programs Chair. At the National NIGP level, she has been a Forum presenter, network facilitator, and currently serves on the Knowledge Committee. Dr. Kaeding is a 3-time Buyer of the Year Winner and in 2016 was the NIGP National Buyer of the Year. Dr. Kaeding earned her DBA from Argosy University and currently holds a CPPB (Certified Professional Public Buyer), CPPO (Certified Public Purchasing Officer), and FCCM (Florida Certified Contracts Manager) certification. In her free time, Dr. Kaeding enjoys traveling, wine tasting, and spending time with her 4-legged, furry son, Buddy.