

SHANNON PLEASANT, CTPM

Shannon Pleasant is the Procurement and Risk Manager for the City of Missouri City, a suburb of Houston, Texas. Shannon has 18+ years of experience in purchasing and contract administration. Her experience includes the oil and gas industry, construction, state, county and municipal government. She holds a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Houston Baptist University. She has a Certified Texas Procurement Manager certification from the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts. Shannon has memberships in a number of purchasing and finance organizations such as the Gulf Coast Government Finance Officers Association of Texas, National Institute of Governmental Purchasing, Inc., Public Risk Management Association, National Procurement Institute, Inc., National Forum for Black Public Administrators, Southeast Texas Association of Public Purchasing and Texas Public Purchasing Association. Shannon was born and raised in Austin, Texas. She enjoys snorkeling, cooking and art; and she has a wonderful teenage son.