

SHELLEY VINEYARD, MBA, RTSBA

Shelley is the Business Development and Marketing Coordinator for Disaster Recovery Services, LLC, where she focuses on public entity risk management and procurement strategies in facilitation of complex disaster recovery projects. Shelley serves as a subject matter expert in the areas of public procurement and governmental business operations, with specialized expertise in federal procurement guidelines and strategies. Her responsibilities include working closely with project managers and public entity clients to prepare comprehensive action plans for recovery efforts, especially where state and federal public assistance is involved. Additionally, Shelley works closely with suppliers, cooperative purchasing groups, and client purchasing departments to provide procurement guidance, training and assistance, helping develop comprehensive procurement strategies to support financial recovery.