

ZACHARY CHRISTENSEN, JD

---

Zac graduated from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law. Since that time, he has worked in procurement for Lockheed Martin Space Systems Company, the State of Utah Division of Purchasing, and is currently serving as the Director of Purchasing and Contracts for the Utah State Board of Education. He has also been appointed to the Procurement Policy Board for the State of Utah, is currently the Vice President of the Utah Chapter of NIGP, is the Secretary of the Utah Education Procurement Advisory Council (EdPAC) and has trained or presented at more than 20 statewide procurement training events. Zac has been able to draft changes and updates to the Utah Procurement Code as a contract analyst at State Purchasing and at USBE draft policies and procedures for a newly independent procurement entity. Additionally, he has been able to draft new administrative rules that advance procurement policies and practices.