

Kenneth Hayslette

CPPO, C.P.M., CPCM

Kenneth is a professional consultant, speaker, & trainer specializing in the areas of Public Procurement, Contracting, Communications, and Personal Achievement. His passion is to assist others to become successful and thus happier in their careers and personal life. During his 42+ year procurement career Kenneth has been responsible for the centralized and decentralized procurement of almost every type of commodities, services, and construction. Ken's background includes serving as the Operations Manager for a mid-sized consumer electronics firm. Subsequently he worked for Volusia County, FL working his way up from Buyer, Purchasing Agent, Purchasing Systems Coordinator, to the Purchasing Director. He also has served as the Procurement Services Director for Lake County, FL, Services Contracts Manager for the District of Columbia, and Purchasing Manager for Rockville, MD. Ken is currently in private practice providing educational and consulting services to individuals, public and private organizations.