

Denise Schneider, CPPO, CPPB, C.P.M., C.M.

Denise is currently the Assistant Director of Purchasing and Material Control for the Greater Orlando Aviation Authority and has worked there since 2007. She has over thirty years of diverse procurement experience and has worked for several agencies in the Central Florida area. She is the past president (1998, 1999, and 2003) of the Central Florida Chapter of NIGP, served as the 2009 President of the Florida Association of Public Purchasing Officials (FAPPO), and was President of the Airport Purchasing Group (APG) from 2011 through 2014. She served from 2015 to 2017 on the NIGP Governing Board and as Chair of the NIGP Member Council. Currently, she serves on the NIGP Member Council and is a board member for FAPPO, CFCNIGP, and APG. She was the national NIGP Buyer of the Year in 1999, received the Spirit of NIGP Award in 2011, and received the George H. Wolf Distinguished Service Award from FAPPO in 2010. In 2014, she was recognized as the National Manager of the Year by NIGP. In August 2017, she received the Airport Purchasing Group David Wagner Distinguished Service award. She has taught and facilitated classes for FAPPO, NIGP, AAAE, and APG conferences and continues to be actively involved in all four professional organizations.