

Ellen Nasrallah

As Senior Business Development Executive for BidNet, Ellen's expertise on sourcing processes and procedures continues to expand with each new government purchasing team she meets. BidNet, part of the Mediagrif Strategic Sourcing platform, is a source-to-contract suite for over 1,200 government agencies. Ellen works with local and state agencies to simplify their purchasing process through automated workflow, bid distribution, supplier management, and contract management. She has been an integral part of the BidNet team since 2014.
