

Jeffrey Haag

Jeffrey Haag was appointed Administrator of the State of Nevada Purchasing Division in October 2015. Jeff came to the State after working in the private sector for Southwest Airlines for nearly 20 years. While at Southwest, Jeff held several high-level positions responsible for internal and external customer care, strategic sourcing, supplier diversity, contract law, contract negotiation and execution for State and Federal government, higher education, and Fortune 500 Corporations. Jeff is a passionate leader focused on purposeful procurement through mutually beneficial relationships.