

Kimberly Henry, MSHRD

Kim Henry is the Learning & Development Team Lead for the State of Tennessee, Central Procurement Office. While she has only been in the procurement field for a short time, she has over 20 years' experience in Learning and Development. She is a certified Myers-Briggs and Stephen Covey, 7 Habits of Highly Effective People facilitator. Kim has developed and facilitated leadership courses for state and local governments in addition to the private sector. She was also the originator of the award-winning Civil Rights training at the TN Department of Human Services. This training received The Communicator Award, Silver Award of Distinction in Multimedia Education. As a result, she has been the producer of several training videos. Kim holds a master's degree in human resource development from the University of Tennessee. She and her husband, Jesse, have two sons, Jesse, II (18) and Kenneth (14).