

Tae-Hee Han, LEED AP, CPPB, Assoc. DBIA

Tae-Hee is a Contracts Supervisor for the Procurement & Contracts Division at Sound Transit. Tae-Hee is responsible for managing highly complex architectural/engineering and construction procurements and contracts utilizing all available alternative delivery methods in the state of Washington, including Design-Build, General Contractor/Construction Manager (GC/CM), and Job Order Contracting (JOC). Tae-Hee obtained a bachelor's degree in architecture and a studied construction management at the University of Washington. He holds professional certifications from several organizations, including the UPPCC's Certified Professional Public Buyer and the Design Build Institute of America's DBIA Associate.