

Ted Lucas, CPPO, JD

Ted Lucas is the Director of Procurement & Contracts for Sound Transit, the dynamic and rapidly expanding transit authority for Seattle and the multi-county Central Puget Sound Region. Sound Transit's Procurement & Contracts Division performs all agency procurement including technology, goods and services, and design and construction. The Division holds the Pareto Award of Excellence in Public Procurement. Prior to joining Sound Transit in 2012, Ted was Purchasing Manager for Snohomish County (Everett, WA), VP of Strategic Sourcing for Jackson Health System (Miami, FL), Procurement Director for Miami-Dade County (Miami, FL), and Deputy General Counsel and Procurement Executive for the Panama Canal Commission (US Government in the Republic of Panama). Ted received a law degree from the University of Washington and is the much-blessed father of six wonderful children.
