

Victor Leamer, CPPB

Victor Leamer worked 30 years with the State of Alaska, primarily in the procurement field. He retired for a total of six days before taking a procurement job with Spokane County, WA. Victor has led a variety of procurement-related classes, including courses he has developed on protests, procurement ethics, and contract price adjustments. He has presented NIGP webinars on protests and contract price adjustments and led the course Developing and Managing Request for Proposals Online. Victor is a certified NIGP instructor.