

CHRISTY GARZA

---

Christy Garza has spent her career in public service managing specialized applications and providing support and training to system users. Christy was one of the leads on the Arizona Procurement Portal implementation project and currently manages the system as well as system support staff. In addition to the Arizona Department of Administration, Christy has worked with Arizona State Parks and Trails and the Arizona Department of Veterans' Services.