

Craig A. Bucher

MBA

Craig Bucher has served the City of Columbus, Ohio, in the Procurement Office since March of 2012. Prior to joining the City, Craig has been in numerous financial and supply chain roles within the private sector.

Craig holds a BBA in Finance from the University of Toledo and Masters of Business Administration from Capital University.

Craig spends his free time with his family in the outdoors and taking an active role in coaching the many sports his two sons participate in.