Immediate Past President

Immediate Past President Overview

The Immediate Past President serves a one-year term after completing the consecutive one-year terms of President Elect and President. The Immediate Past President is a Society Officer who serves on the Executive Committee and participates in the Office of the President. Upon leaving office, the Immediate Past President may not serve on the NSH Board of Directors in any capacity for at least five years.

Responsibilities

- Effective with the 2020 elections, the Society will elect a President-Elect, who will serve three consecutive one-year terms as Immediate Past President Elect, Immediate Past President, and finally Immediate Past Immediate Past President.

- The President provides oversight of the NSH Strategic Plan in collaboration with the President Elect, and Immediate Past President, and the Executive Director. The Society’s plan is reviewed and updated on an annual basis. As strategic objectives are completed and moved to operations, it will be necessary to periodically review the efficacy of current programs.

- The Immediate Past President provides oversight, along with the Board, of the Executive Director. The Immediate Past President participates in the Executive Director’s annual review with the entire Executive Committee.

- The Immediate Past President will review and abide by NSH’s approved policies, which are in the NSH Governance Tab on The Block, the Society’s private online community.

- In collaboration with the Board of Directors as a whole, the Immediate Past President is expected to lead the Board to:
  - Decide matters of Society strategy, direction, and policy.
  - Determine the association’s public policy and government relations/regulatory positions.
  - Identify and address short- and long-term Society opportunities, threats, and issues.
  - Establish committees, task forces, and working groups.
  - Ensure adequate financial resources are available and allocated and manage those resources by providing effective financial governance and oversight.
  - Review and approve the annual budget, review investment information quarterly, and appoint the Budget & Finance Committee Chair.
  - Oversee the association’s organizational governance structure.
  - Conduct an annual assessment of the Society’s volunteer resource talent, skills, expertise, and experience.
  - Perform the requirements as established within the Society’s Bylaws, state laws and regulations.
