

State News for NSPE Members

UDC Mechanical Engineering Degree Ranked as One of the Nation's Most Affordable Programs

The University of the District of Columbia has been identified as having one of the most affordable bachelor's in mechanical engineering degree programs in a recent ranking. The ranking considered average cost of attendance and student-to-faculty ratio.

Home to the Center for Biomechanical & Rehabilitation Engineering since Fall 2015, the University of the District of Columbia is a public, land-grant historically Black TMCF member that's endowed for $21.8 million to employ 3,747 staff serving 3,867 undergrad Firebirds in 68 low-cost majors. In 2015, UDC received the District Sustainability People's Choice Award. District Columbia accepted the 2018 BIA Best in Class Award for its Student Center. The U.S. News & World Report ranked the University of the District of Columbia 181st for engineering degrees. UDC was lauded America's 198th most liberal school on Niche with the 132nd highest paid engineering graduates on College Factual.

Read the full story.

Celebrate Pioneers of Progress For Engineers Week 2020

Engineers, like all pioneers, use their knowledge, creativity, and sense of adventure to cross frontiers. And you can help inspire the next generation of pioneers for Engineers Week 2020!

Get ready for the "Pioneers of Progress"-themed celebrations by downloading your Ultimate How-To Guide. Then order your Pioneers of Progress poster and check out the brand-new 2020 activities . You can also learn more about all of the available resources by watching the recording of the recent kickoff webinar for Girl Day and EWeek.

Learn more from DiscoverE.

Call for Nominations

NSPE is seeking nominations for the position of 2020–2021 Vice President, who also serves as President-Elect in 2021–2022 and President in 2022–2023.

Nomination packages must be submitted to the NSPE Secretary, Mark Golden, and received by January 13, 2020. The NSPE Secretary will forward all qualified submissions to the NSPE Candidate Screening Committee for consideration. Please review carefully the information that includes candidate qualifications, expected time and financial commitments for officers, and the requirements of the nomination process.

If you have any questions, please email the NSPE Executive Office. We look forward to your assistance in identifying outstanding, qualified leaders!

Access the requirements and other information.

Take Advantage of 15 Free

Earn PDHs and get your 15 free courses available to NSPE members before they expire at the end of the year. Develop and hone your professional skills without leaving your own workstation! Check out all of the 2019 free courses before the new year, including the four-part engineering ethics series and career development webinars.

You received this e-mail because you are subscribed to PE Matters e-newsletter.

To update your e-mail address, visit www.nspe.org and login to manage your account.

If you do not wish to receive any more issues of PE Matters, click here to unsubscribe .

Share with your network

