The Women of Color Caucus (WoCC) is one of the largest National Women’s Studies Association (NWSA) constituency groups. The WoCC Co-Chairs lead this caucus through regular check-ins and meetings, as well as programming and community-building opportunities.

The WoCC holds one official voting seat on the Governing Council (or Board). Both Caucus Co-Chairs attend meetings and share the responsibilities associated with Board initiatives, including serving on the Finance or Elections Committees.

The WoCC supports the Women of Color Leadership Project (WoCLP). At least one WoCC Co-Chair works with to support the WoCLP Co-Chairs each year.

In partnership with Frontiers: A Journal of Women’s Studies, NWSA invites paper submissions for the 2024 Women of Color Caucus-Frontiers Student Essay Award.

Explore our Bylaws and Strategic Plan to learn more about NWSA governance!

Join us during our upcoming Instagram Live chats to meet our current Board members and discuss open positions!