<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Session</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 9.00-10.20 | Reaping the rewards of investment in XML and Akoma Ntoso: Case law, drafting legislation and legislative data analysis in the UK
John Sheridan, Catherine Tabone and Matt Lynch, Nicki Welsh,
The UK National Archives; Jim Mangiafico, Juris Datum. |
| 10.20-11.00| A structured approach to regulatory reporting?
Cecile Guasch, DIGIT B.2, 'European Commission, DG Informatics (remotely) |
| 10.30-11.00| Coffee Break                                                                              |
| 11.00-11.40| Drafting legislation in the era of artificial intelligence and digitization
Willy VAN PUYMBROECK, European Commission, DG Informatics |
| 11.40-12.20| AKN4EU solution for consolidated EU law
Žilvinas Bubnys, Publications Office of the European Union (remotely) |
| 12.20-13.00| Implementing AKN4UN as the document standard for WHO’s Governing Bodies,
Jorge Estevez Lopez, WHO |
| 12.45-14.00| Lunch Break                                                                               |
| 14.00-14.40| Austrian Parliament XML Success Case and ManyLaws
Günther Schefbeck, Austrian Parliament |
| 14.40-15.00| Advanced Drafting with Akoma Ntoso
Grant Vergottini, Xcential, California, USA |
| 15.00-15.40| Fedlex, the publication platform for federal law in Switzerland
Geert Bormans, CH Federal Chancellery (remotely) |
| 16.00      | Round Table and Conclusions                                                               |